

Get the Gist Practice

The North Pole is one of the coldest places on earth. The temperature often drops below 0. It is also very windy at the North Pole. The winds are very strong, often gusting up to 100km per hour.

What is the 'who' or 'what' ?

---

What is the most important idea about the 'who' or 'what' ?

---

Get the Gist Practice

When a volcano erupts, melted rock, steam, and ashes are forced through the top of the mountain. The area around a volcano is sprayed with ashes and a boiling liquid called lava. Bridges, cars, homes, and other buildings in its path are destroyed. People, animals, plants and trees are killed.

What is the 'who' or 'what' ?

---

What is the most important idea about the 'who' or 'what' ?

---