

Hidden

The answer is

An inference is hidden in the text. We need to use the clues, and information from two or more places to find the answer.

Questions start with any question words.

Questioning

Head

The answer is in my

head

I need to give my feelings thoughts and opinions. My answer does need to fit in with the text and what the author is saying. The answer is not written in the text. Questions start with why, what do you think, how, should, could...

Questioning

Here

The answer is in the text. The answer is easy to find, and normally uses the same words that are in the question

Questions start with who, when, where, what, which...