

Before you talk...

Think about what you want to say and put a sentence in your head.

When you are listening...

Listen out for one or two important words or facts and try to remember them.

I don't understand

If you are really confused and don't understand, think about what you don't understand and say to the teacher

"I have been listening but I don't understand how to..."