

When

When is a time

*Examples of time words:
Yesterday, today,
tomorrow, last year, at lunch time, later, after,
two o'clock, at Christmas, in the summer, during the evening, when the snow falls.*

Where

Where is a place

Examples of where words:
park, zoo, school, shops,
bed, my Nans house, our classroom, the canteen, the toilets, holiday house, back yard, playground, beach, under the bed, church, on an island.

Who

Who is a Person or an animal

Examples of who words:

Mum, Dad, my sister, Jenny, the man next door,
my teacher, the brown cat,
the thief, a baby, the principal, Nanna, a hero, me, you, we, our class, my pet turtle.

What

What words are usually verbs (action words)

Examples of what words:
ran, jumped, left, ate, took, fed,
played, slept, took, wrote,
drank, brushed, shopped,
finished, cleaned, yelled, cried, sat, bought, moved, went dancing.

Which

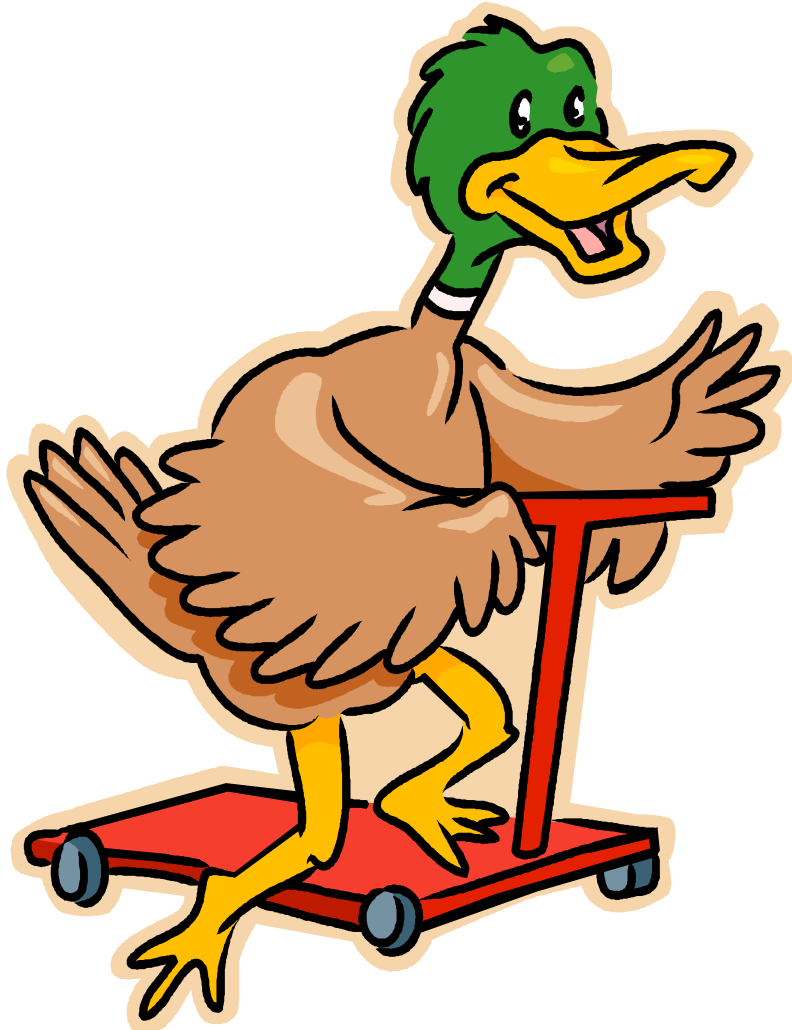

Which words are usually adjectives (describing words)

Examples of which words:

Red, green, long, flat, sunny, cold, girl, boy, hairy, tall, short, long, old, noisy, tiny, young, lonely, sad, huge, tasty, wet, smelly, pretty, new, shiny.

How

How words can be adverbs (adverbs describe verbs)

Examples include:

Quickly, slowly, immediately, strangely, quietly, smoothly,
madly, sadly, swiftly, cleverly, softly, loudly, lovingly.

How

How words can
be verbs
(action words)

Examples include:

Drove, ran, swam, raced,
moved, rode, walked, flew,
skied, skated, crawled,
climbed, hiked, rushed,
carried, chased, strolled.

Here questions

Here questions have an easy to find answer. The answer will be definitely right, or definitely wrong. Answers can be words like yes, no, red, green, boy...

Head questions

Head questions ask You for your feelings, thoughts and ideas. The information that you already know can give you clues to help you work out the answer.

Hidden questions

A hidden question asks you to join information that you can see or find with information that you know. You will need to think carefully about the answer.